

Sample Script to introduce Peter Gerlach, FIBC, ATM

It is my pleasure at this time to introduce our keynote speaker for you today.

Topic (Subject or Title of the Speech) – To be discussed – depending on audience, outcome etc
.....

Importance (Why the presentation is important to the audience, how audience can benefit from it) – To be discussed – depending on audience, outcome etc .....

Speaker:

He is a professional a pragmatic and passionate speaker, strategist, author, and coach in developing great leaders internationally. Running his own enterprise since 2001, he is a fellow of the Institute of Business Consulting, a founder member of the Professional Speakers Association and currently President at his local Toastmasters Speakers club in London that he founded in 2004.

Additionally, our speaker has also co-authored the German version of “Positive Thinking from A-Z” together with the one of the best-known authors and speakers in the European personal development seminar scene Ms. Vera F. Birkenbihl. His latest book is called “The Black Belt Executive Workbook Life Tools for your Personal and Business Success”.

His expertise has made a positive impact on international clients from large blue chips to SME’s at all levels and in many cultures worldwide.

Our speaker will provide a unique global, practical and challenging approach and will give us a refreshing view on the current leadership styles of companies and their leaders. As well as practical applications; you will enjoy the speaker's entertaining and down to earth style of passion, wit and practical story telling. It is my pleasure to introduce him today.

This evening our speaker is going to talk to us about _____

- Please join me in welcoming Mr. Peter Gerlach.
- Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome Peter Gerlach
- Please help me give a dynamite welcome to Peter Gerlach